India CSR Group is extremely delighted to confer India CSR Leadership Award 2021 to Ms Suchita Oswal Jain, Vice Chairman and Joint Managing Director, Vardhman Textiles in appreciation of her commendable work in the avenue of social welfare through Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives of her organisation.

She is an individual par excellence with a hands-on approach to social development. She has surpassed expectations by reaching uncharted areas and touching a large number of lives through various appreciable interventions both in business and CSR.

Under her leadership, Vardhman Textiles is not only contributing to the textile industry through its products and services but also to the society through a progressive and responsible approach.

India CSR would like to appreciate the noteworthy contribution made in the field of education, healthcare, environment conservation, development of human capital, rural development, women empowerment etc.

We feel honoured to present the Award and citation to Ms Suchita Oswal Jain. The India CSR Leadership Award is an acknowledgement of Ms Suchita Oswal Jain's contribution to the area of responsible business and Corporate Social Responsibility.

We wish her a happy and healthy life ahead to carry on her mission to make a positive contribution to a larger good in India.
